THANKSGIVING DAY

Let's Eat! From time immemorial, that has been the highlight of one of our greatest holidays . . . Thanksgiving Day! Turkey with all the trimmings . . . pumpkin pie . . . oysters . . . bountiful servings lovingly prepared in homes all over the nation, as family groups assembled the last Thursday in the month of November.

Let's Eat! The children go for that! "Fill up my plate again, and don't forget the cranberry sauce." And everyone thrills at each new evidence of what a good cook Mon is.

And this Thanksgiving Day in America . . . eating will be even more of a feature than before . . . for America is well-fed these days. The Pilgrim Fathers had enough, but seldom the bounty of modern times.

And so, maybe this eating angle may give us pause . . . something to think about this Thanksgiving Day, 1954.

When the family gathers, maybe today the "grace" should be a little longer than usual! Maybe we should take a few more moments in "asking the blessing" . . . and put in something about being grateful that our families are able to gather in freedom and that our nation is at peace. Maybe he should lift upwards a prayer for the Constitution and the sound laws that have made us a mighty land. Perhaps he should even put in a good word for the Free Enterprise and Industry which provides jobs for the people and the payrolls which provide us the world's highest living standard.

And . . . too, why not a word of Thanksgiving being privileged to live in a Growing Town . . . like Appomattox . . . a word of appreciation for the friendly business institutions . . . the dealers and merchants and clerks and for all the small services that add up to such a big thing. Yes . . . on Thanksgiving Day, we are thankful, too, for YOU . . . the public . . . the average citizen, the farmer, the timber worker, the factory worker, the housewife, the boys and girls who team up to make ours a Growing Town.

Let's Eat! Sure . . . pass another slice of turkey! But remember . . . there is more to this day than some of us take time to realize.

Contribute to the United Defense Fund Drive

The United Defense Fund is now making a drive for Appomattox's share in supporting one of our most worthy causes. Millions of service men and veterans know the service rendered by USO and affiliated groups. Appomattox people will want to see that this county meets its share of this great program. Our nation is at peace this Thanksgiving Day, but hundreds of thousands of our fine young people are still in the service, and you can contribute to their welfare while they are away from home by supporting the United Defense Fund.

Don't wait to be solicited for this cause! Make a voluntary contribution! Make it today!

G. B. Buchanan is county chairman for this drive, and Gene Paulette is treasurer. Thanksgiving weekend would be the ideal time to make your contribution to either of the above at Appomattox, Virginia.
